Environmental Hygiene and Toxicology – our Core Competencies

Preventive Health Protection – our Mission

We are accredited by the Deutsche Akkreditierungsstelle (DAkkS; German Accreditation Body) for all our essential services. Moreover, we continuously add services to our portfolio.

Besides environmental services, we also do environmental research and education. We participate in research projects as a subcontractor and collaborate for bachelor's, master's and even PhD theses with universities in the region and beyond. As an affiliated institute to the Ruhr University in Bochum, Germany, we teach Environmental Hygiene and Toxicology.
